

PREDICTS NEW YORK FOR TAFT

G. O. P. Chairman Says President Will Get 60,000 Plurality

New York, Oct. 30.—That New York state will give a plurality of 60,000 for President Taft is the prediction of William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the New York republican state committee. In a statement issued, Mr. Barnes says:

"Accurate canvasses which have been made throughout the state of New York indicate that Taft's plurality outside of the city will exceed 110,000 and that Mr. Wilson cannot carry the city of New York by 50,000. Upon these canvasses, in which I have absolute confidence, I now am ready to predict that the state will give a plurality of more than 60,000 for President Taft. This outcome will be due to the well considered and fixed belief that Mr. Wilson is a man of uncertain mind with no practical conception of public affairs and that, if elected, with a democratic senate and a democratic house, his radical tendencies and the slant of the democratic party, imbued with the ideas of Mr. Bryan, will lead to industrial depression and material distress to all.

Hero Worshipers for Roosevelt.

The vote for Mr. Roosevelt in New York will not exceed one-sixth of the total vote, but representing as it does, similar radicalism to that of Mr. Wilson, it is drawing heavily from that element in the state which otherwise would support the democratic ticket. The attack made by the progressive forces upon the individual liberty of every citizen of America guaranteed by the bill of rights has made it impossible for them to gather real headway, leaving to them only the hero worshiper who, fortunately in this state, are not of sufficient numbers to subvert our American form of government and interfere with the prosperous condition which will continue under a second administration by President Taft.

"This prediction is based on these figures received from 1,068 election districts out of a total of 2,295 outside of Greater New York, which report, through the canvasses completed, the following vote for president:

Taft, 158,054; Wilson, 117,777; Debs, 4,621; Chaffin, 5,949; Roosevelt, 42,588. Taft's plurality, 40,277.

Taft Credited with 459,540.

This ratio of voting, if carried out throughout the entire state, indicates a vote outside of Greater New York for president as follows: Taft 459,540; Wilson, 342,481; Debs, 13,251; Chaffin, 17,388; Roosevelt, 124,290. Taft's plurality, 117,059.

"The canvass of Greater New York indicates a plurality for Wilson of less than 50,000 in the city. These canvasses have been a reliable guide to the republican state committee for the last fifteen years."

SAYS U. S. COOKS EXCEL.

With This Idea New Yorker Will Invaade Paris.

New York, Oct. 30.—"I am going to take a regular New York restaurant to Paris," said Thomas Stanley, who has just returned from Europe. He and members of his family own three restaurants in this city.

"I have been in every restaurant of importance in Paris and am convinced that when it comes to conducting a first class eating house American methods of cooking, serving and entertaining are superior to the French.

"I can compete with them. I am going to take American food with me. I will serve American food, cooked in the American way, and I will have American singers and dances for entertainment."

HERE TOMORROW NIGHT.

"The Littlest Rebel" Will Be Presented at Calumet Theatre.

"The Littlest Rebel," Edward People's stirring and spectacular military play, will appear at the Calumet theatre Friday night, under the direction of A. H. Woods. Mr. Asahel Farnum who starred in this play last season under the same management with signal honors will be seen in the role of Lieut. Col. Morrison of the Federal Army. "The Littlest Rebel" is without a doubt Mr. People's greatest achievement. It is a kaleidoscope of the happenings during the three months just before the "Yankee" closed in on Richmond, Va. It is a stirring panorama of events, rich with plot and intensely dramatic, and one is gripped with the realization of all that was meant. Pretty little Boots Wooster, who is said to be one of the cleverest child-actors on the American stage, will be seen in the title role. Fifty people are employed in the great battle scene.

FATHER IS ONLY FRIEND.

McManigal Deserted by Even His Wife and Children.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Sitting far back in the corner of the courtroom at the dynamite conspiracy trial, in the last seat set apart for spectators, is a little old man, his thinning hair snow white, the lines of whose angular face showed deep grief intermingled with dismay and apprehension.

Every day, silent and watchful, the little old man has been at the trial, and only occasionally has his somber face brightened. That has been when little E. McManigal, confessed dynamiter and informer, has been brought into the courtroom for identification purposes. The little old man is the "squealer's" only friend, his father.

Fellow ironworkers, friends, even his young wife and children, have shrunk from McManigal as from a thing accursed, since he made the amazing confession that sent the McNamoras to San Quentin and but some fifty odd of his fellow unionists in the shadow of the federal penitentiary.

Mrs. McManigal, who lives in Chicago, has not been near the man she married, nor has she communicated with him since last he was incarcerated in one of the marshal's rooms, ready to go to the Marion county jail.

Harry Buiger is about to go into Louisville.

Jobs than men with the comforts of life universally distributed, should vote for Taft. He is not a politician—but he has made a great president and is doing the world good. Like Washington and Lincoln he has a temperament for the place, and under a little different circumstances might today be filling with distinction the office of chief justice of the United States.

"He is a gentleman, a statesman, and a diplomat. He is clear-headed, clean hearted and patriotic. He does not play politics nor favorites. He enforces the law alike for rich and poor. He is the President of all our people. He is not a bully, a black-guard, not a demagogue. He never made a promise, broke his word, nor threw a friend. He is normally minded. He does not lie and he has no Asiatic Club. He defends the constitution, and believes in representative government with orderly progress. He is in the highest sense a true American.

Some one shouts that he stole his nomination. Then he must have stolen it from somebody. Can anyone name the owner? Surely neither Cummins nor La Follette owned it, for one had only ten delegates and the other thirty six. Nor did the bolters own it, for only a small minority bolted, counting contesting delegates and all. No, there was no stealing of a nomination in Chicago. There was an attempted theft, and then the would-be thieves cried, 'Stop thief!' to cover their bolts while they organized the Bull Moose party. Out of two hundred and thirty eight contests that admitted bluff in all but thirty four and dropped them. And even these were mostly rejected after careful hearing. The lie has done its work but it is only a lie. And now while the Bull Moosers stand at Armageddon and battle for the Lord they are stealing the right of every Republican to vote in South Dakota and California.

for Roosevelt in 1904 and 1912 in starting, while Thomas F. Ryan's southern hospitality to candidate Parker makes Ross Bill Flynn look like Mexican money, and even Governor Wilson accepted with personal approval a generous contribution from the owners of the harvesters trust, after the government had begun a dissolution suit. Anyone who believes in clean politics can be absolutely sure to get what he wants by voting for Taft.

"Everywhere from Boston to San Francisco, the trend of thought is toward the President. Labor is universally employed, money is plentiful, every legitimate enterprise is prospering, every man has a meal ticket, and every baby has a milk bottle. The cricket is on the hearth, and there is joy in the land. Why make a change?

"Taft stands for the principle of protection with intelligent tariff revision, schedule by schedule, through a tariff board, without stopping a mill or throwing a man out of work. The Democratic Congress voted to abolish the tariff board, and committed itself to violent revision, while the Democratic platform declares protection to be unconstitutional.

"Free Trade would permit, and in some cases would compel our vast accumulations of manufacturing capital to go abroad, employ foreign labor, and sell the products in the American markets. This is a Democratic fallacy as opposed to the Republican fallacy that has made us strong and great. 'When the world began discarding freedom and slavery a century ago, it greatly quickened inventive genius, and the conditions of life have been wholly transformed. Every step has made its problem, and it is for us to say whether we shall meet our problems—incidents of our progress—or repeat this modern civilization and return to the simple but half savage life of our Colonial ancestors.

Taft's Achievements.

"And President Taft has been doing all the Federal Government can legally do to meet these new conditions and bring happiness to the people. His arbitration treaties alone will make his name and administration forever famous. The telegraph and steamship have made the world one country, so that every war is now a civil war, and must be stopped.

"He brought us out of the panic into the gladness of prosperity, he gave us the postal savings bank, the parcels post, the mining bureau, the children's bureau, the employers' liability act, the corrupt practices act, the Industrial Commission, the One Per Cent Gross Earnings Tax on Corporations, the Maximum Tariff Schedule, the Tariff Board, the Income Tax Amendment, a self supporting postal department, the Customs Court, the Commerce Court, has preserved peace under trying circumstances and sustained the dignity of our Government at all times at home and abroad.

"This is but an abridged and feeble statement of the facts. For three years and a half the President has been bitterly maligned, but the truth is finding its way to the light, the demagogue, the boodler, the man seeking a special privilege, the fannings of the faithless friend and the sacred chorus of the Pie-Eaters' Union.

"A year and a half ago, when Mr. Taft had served two years and had two more to serve, the tariff bill being then bitterly criticized, he was urged to do certain things to popularize his administration and assure his reelection. The suggestions did not appeal to him, and striking the table with his fist he exclaimed, 'I would rather be President for two years than a trimmer for six.'

"Such is the man in the White House, and such is the sort of man that ought always to be there."

Is there a young man in our community who is not interested in the subject of Fall Clothes? We believe interest in correct dress is just as much a phase of character as any other good trait. It is a matter of business and social necessity for the young man who wants to get along; and what is true of the younger is true of the elder. For the man who wants to make his clothes money count for the limit, we suggest seeing our showing of
